IN THE MATTER OF TRADEMARK APPLICATION SERIAL NO. 88/279,690
PUBLISHED IN THE OFFICIAL GAZETTE ON MAY 5, 2020

MARK:

MARC JACOBS INTERNATIONAL, LLC,

Opposer,

v.

NIRVANA, LLC,

Applicant.

OPPOSITION NO.:

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Marc Jacobs International, LLC (“Opposer”) is a limited liability company organized under the laws of Delaware with a principal place of business at 72 Spring Street, New York, New York 10012. Opposer believes it will be damaged by the registration of the mark

(the “Disputed Mark”) by Applicant Nirvana, LLC (“Applicant”) for use in connection with “Shirts, T-shirts, Tank tops, Jumpsuits, Sweat-shirts, Pants, Lounge pants, Socks, Shorts, Sweat shorts, Hoodies, Jackets, Beanies, Hats, Baseball caps, Bucket hats, Bow ties; Belts, Belts made of leather, Scarves, Slippers” in International Class 25 (collectively, “Applicant’s Goods”) covered by the above-identified application serial no. 88/279,690 (the “Application”) and, having been granted an extension of time to oppose the Application up to and including September 2, 2020, hereby opposes the same.

The grounds for opposition are as follows:

1. Opposer is a global fashion company that creates, promotes, and sells clothing, shoes, handbags, accessories, fragrance, and a wide array of related goods and services (collectively, “Opposer’s Goods and Services”).

2. Opposer is engaged in the manufacture, distribution, offering for sale, and/or sale of Opposer’s Goods and Services, and in the marketing, advertising, and promotion thereof, throughout the world, including in the United States.

3. Opposer has utilized smiley face designs ornamentally in connection with goods identical and/or related to Applicant’s Goods covered by the Application, and has an interest in continuing to do so in the future. Representative samples of such goods are pictured below:

4. In or about December 2018, Applicant directed a cease and desist letter to Opposer asserting its purported ownership of the Disputed Mark and alleged a likelihood of confusion between goods offered by Opposer and goods Applicant purportedly offered in connection with the Disputed Mark.

5. On or about December 28, 2018, Applicant filed a complaint against Opposer in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California alleging that Opposer's ornamentation of goods with a mere refinement or variation of the ubiquitous and universally recognized smiley face symbol infringed Applicant's rights in the Disputed Mark. That case is styled Nirvana LLC v. Marc Jacobs International, LLC et al., Case No. 2:18-cv-10743 and remains pending as of the date of this filing (the "Civil Action").

6. In the pending Civil Action, Applicant relies on its purported ownership of the Disputed Mark to allege trademark infringement and related claims against Opposer, and has alleged a likelihood of confusion between goods offered by Opposer and goods Applicant purportedly offers in connection with the Disputed Mark.

7. Opposer believes that it will be damaged by the registration of the Application and hereby opposes same based on the grounds that the Disputed Mark: (i) fails to function as a mark (Sec. 1, 2, and 45), (ii) lacks inherent or acquired distinctiveness (Secs. 1, 2, and 45; Sec. 2(f)), (iii) is a generic, universal symbol (Secs. 1, 2, and 45), (iv) is merely ornamental and has not been used by Applicant as a trademark (Sec. 1, 2, and 45); and further because Applicant: (v) lacked a bona fide intent to use the Disputed Mark in interstate commerce in connection with the identified goods as of the filing date of the Application (Sec. 1(b)), (vi) was not using the Disputed Mark as a trademark in interstate commerce for several of the goods in the Amendment to Allege Use at the time its Amendment to Allege Use was filed (Sec. 1(a) and (c)), and (vii) committed fraud during the prosecution of the Application by, inter alia, providing knowingly false statements to the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") in connection with the prosecution of the Application, including in its Amendment to Allege Use and substitute specimen filing.

8. The smiley face is one of the most ubiquitous and universally recognized symbols in the world.

9. TMEP § 1202.03(a) states “Common expressions and symbols (e.g., the peace symbol, ‘smiley face’, or the phrase ‘Have a Nice Day’) are normally not perceived as marks” and cannot be registered on either the Principal Register or the Supplemental Register.

10. Applicant, by way of the Application for the Disputed Mark, impermissibly seeks to register a non-distinctive, commonly-adopted and well-known “smiley face design” for ornamenting goods in International Class 25.

11. The Disputed Mark fails to function as a trademark because it comprises a universal symbol conveying an informational message. The significance of the Disputed Mark is the underlying informational message it conveys, rather than identifying the Applicant as the source of Applicant’s Goods.

12. The Disputed Mark comprises a “smiley face design” and is described as such by the Applicant itself.

13. Specifically, the Application describes the Disputed Mark as a “smiley face design” “with two x's representing the eyes, a wiggly line curved upward representing the mouth, and a small open circle with a dash representing the tongue sticking out of the mouth.”

14. Neither the accurate depiction of the universal smiley face symbol, nor minor alterations to the symbol, such as slight stylizations or non-distinctive changes to elements or proportions thereof, are registrable.

15. Applicant's chosen depiction of a common "smiley face design" in the Disputed Mark merely recounts the elements of a ubiquitous smiley face symbol (i.e., two eyes, a mouth, and a tongue) in their generic positions within a non-distinctive circular border.

16. The smiley face symbol, and mere refinements or variations thereof, are commonly used in an informational manner to convey a widely recognized and readily understood meaning.

17. Indeed, an entire emoticon "language" comprised of the smiley face symbol and mere refinements and minor variations thereof dominates the lexicon of digital communications.

18. The majority of mobile phone users have at their disposal a plethora of smiley face designs available to succinctly convey information or express emotion, including designs consisting of two markings representing eyes, and a line oriented horizontally representing a mouth, within a non-distinctive geometric circle. Likewise at mobile phone users' disposal are stock smiley face designs with two x's representing the eyes, and with a tongue sticking out of the mouth.

19. Notwithstanding any non-distinctive alterations of the universal smiley face symbol, the primary significance of the Disputed Mark remains the original common expression of a smiley face design used to convey an informational message. Therefore, the Disputed Mark is incapable of any source identifying function.

20. For years, and well prior to the filing date of the Application for the Disputed Mark and any other date on which Applicant may rely upon for purposes of priority, the smiley face symbol, and refinements or variations of this commonly-adopted and well-known form of ornamentation for goods and services, have been in overwhelmingly common and pervasive use in the United States in connection with goods and services identical or related to Applicant's Goods covered by the Application.

21. Opposer and other third parties have manufactured, advertised, promoted, distributed, offered for sale, and/or sold in interstate commerce various goods and services, including goods and services identical or related to Applicant's Goods covered by the Application, in connection with the universally recognized smiley face design or mere refinements or variations thereof.

22. Ornamenting clothing and apparel items with mere refinements or variations of a smiley face symbol is far from unique or unusual.

23. Smiley face designs are used by Opposer, Applicant, and third parties in an ornamental and decorative manner on numerous products, including in connection with goods and services identical or related to Applicant's Goods covered by the Application.

24. Attached hereto as Exhibit A are true and correct copies of images of numerous clothing and apparel items ornamented with mere refinements or variations of a smiley face design offered for sale by third parties in the United States.

25. The Disputed Mark carries no distinctive message of origin to consumers and is incapable of carrying such a message given the smiley face's widespread use as decoration for any number of products, including clothing, offered by numerous different entities.

26. In light of this extensive third party use and common industry practice, the consuming public is accustomed to encountering smiley face designs on clothing and other goods and services identical or related to Applicant's Goods covered by the Application, and would not regard the Disputed Mark as an indicia of origin for goods originating exclusively with the Applicant.

27. The overwhelmingly common and pervasive use of the ubiquitous smiley face symbol by third parties in connection with goods and services identical or related to those of Applicant renders it such that the Disputed Mark is incapable of identifying Applicant's Goods and distinguishing them from those of others in the marketplace.

28. As with smiley face designs used by numerous third parties, the Disputed Mark is merely ornamental as applied to Applicant's Goods covered by the Application, and has not become distinctive as an indication of the source of Applicant's Goods.

29. The widespread use of the smiley face design by numerous third parties renders it such that the viewing public does not and would not view the Disputed Mark as a source identifier for Applicant.

30. As the foregoing demonstrates, the Disputed Mark is a pervasive, universally-recognized symbol that is not perceived as a source indicator for Applicant, and accordingly fails to function as a trademark.

31. The Disputed Mark is not inherently distinctive, and has not acquired distinctiveness.

32. The use of the Disputed Mark, if any, is merely ornamental and without trademark significance. The Disputed Mark does not create the commercial impression of a source identifier even when ornamenting a hangtag or label in light of the ubiquity and informational nature of the Disputed Mark.

33. Allowing registration of the Disputed Mark would cause Opposer and others engaged in the sale of goods identical or related to those goods identified in the Application damage on a continuing basis by, inter alia, inhibiting use of a non-distinctive, merely ornamental and generic smiley face symbol or designs similar thereto in connection with such goods.

34. Upon information and belief, Applicant did not have a bona fide intent to use the Disputed Mark in connection with the goods identified in the Application as of the filing date of the Application.

35. On January 28, 2019, Applicant filed Application Serial No. 88/279,690 pursuant to Section 1(b) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(b) based on Applicant's alleged intent to use the Disputed Mark for the following goods in International Class 25: "Shoes, namely, boots, boots uppers, half-boots, boots for sports, lace boots, ankle boots, ski boots, football boots, felted boots, football shoes, slippers, bath slippers, beach shoes, sandals, bath sandals, esparto shoes or sandals, footwear, footwear uppers, foot muffs, gymnastic shoes, heels, non-slipping devices for footwear; Clothing, namely, shirts, short-sleeve shirts, t-shirts, tanks, camisoles, sports singlets, vests, coats, collars, detachable collars, belts; dresses, dress shields, fishing vests, fur coats, fur jackets, jumpsuits, hoodies, hoods, jackets, jerseys, sports jerseys, jumper dresses, kimonos, layettes, leotards, outer jackets, winter jackets, outdoor clothing, overcoats, topcoats, petticoats, waistcoats, parkas, cloak, cape, ponchos, suits, sweaters, pullovers, uniforms, overalls, smocks; Pants, namely, shorts, trunks, beach trunks, breeches, hosiery, leggings, tights, panties, pants, trousers, stockings, gaiters, lounge pants; Headgear, namely, hats, bucket hats, caps, baseball caps, bandanas, headbands, shower caps, top hats, cap peaks, turbans, visors, berets; beanies, skull caps; Dresses, dressing gowns, uniforms, karate uniforms, kimonos, aprons, gabardines, capes, hairdressing capes; Baby clothing, namely, bibs, baby jumpsuits; Scarves, fur scarves, fur stoles, veils, neckties, bowties, boas, mufflers, ponchos, pocket squares, shawls; Underwear, namely, boxer shorts; bras, brassieres, teddies, knickers, panties, bodices; pajamas, bodysuits, leotards, underpants, underclothing; Gloves, fingerless gloves, mittens, ski gloves, cuffs, wristbands, socks, sock suspenders, garters, stockings, stocking suspenders, sock suspenders, suspenders, girdles, trouser straps, gaiter straps; Swimsuits, bathing suits, beach clothes, bath robes, bathing caps, overalls, smocks, shower caps, sleep masks, Skirts, skorts, sashes, wet suits for water sports; Clothing, namely, clothing of leather, clothing made of man-made leather, clothing made of imitations of leather, waterproof clothing, cyclists' clothing, embroidered clothing, motorists' clothing, money belts, muffs, ear muffs, footmuffs, ready-made clothing, ready-made linings, clothing for gymnastics, hoods, knitwear, layettes, leg warmers, uniforms, paper clothing, paper hat, pockets, togas; Heels, soles, inner soles, non-slipping devices for footwear, welts for footwear, studs for football boots; Cuffs, wristbands, sleep masks”.

36. Upon information and belief based upon documents produced by the Applicant in the Civil Action, and given the sheer scope of the goods identified and the number of disparate goods set forth in the identification, as of the January 28, 2019 filing date of the Application, Applicant lacked a bona fide intention to use the Disputed Mark in connection with each of the goods included in the Application, including, inter alia, jumpsuits, boots uppers, half-boots, ski boots, football boots, football shoes, esparto shoes or sandals, footwear uppers, foot muffs, gymnastic shoes, heels, non-slipping devices for footwear; camisoles, sports singlets, detachable collars, dress shields, fishing vests, fur coats, fur jackets, kimonos, layettes, leotards, petticoats, waistcoats, cloak, breeches, hosiery, top hats, cap peaks, turbans, berets, karate uniforms, kimonos, aprons, gabardines, capes, hairdressing capes, fur scarves, fur stoles, veils, boas, mufflers, bras, brassieres, teddies, slippers, knickers, panties, bodices, leotards, ski gloves, sock suspenders, garters, stockings, stocking suspenders, sock suspenders, suspenders, girdles, trouser straps, gaiter straps, swimsuits, wet suits for water sports, clothing of leather, clothing made of man-made leather, clothing made of imitations of leather, waterproof clothing, cyclists' clothing, motorists' clothing, money belts, muffs, ear muffs, footmuffs, ready-made clothing, ready-made linings, clothing for gymnastics, layettes, leg warmers, uniforms, paper clothing, paper hat, pockets, togas, soles, inner soles, welts for footwear, and studs for football boots.

37. On July 2, 2019, Applicant filed an Amendment to Allege Use pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1051(c), together with a purported specimen consisting of a document entitled “Nirvana Smile Designs Ordered / Shipped.”

38. The Amendment to Allege Use contained a sworn declaration attesting that the Disputed Mark was in use in interstate commerce on or in connection with the following goods: “Shoes, namely, boots, boots uppers, half-boots, boots for sports, lace boots, ankle boots, ski boots, football boots, felted boots, football shoes, slippers, bath slippers, beach shoes, sandals, bath sandals, esparto shoes or sandals, footwear, footwear uppers, foot muffs, gymnastic shoes, heels, non-slipping devices for footwear; Clothing, namely, shirts, short-sleeve shirts, t-shirts, tanks, camisoles, sports singlets, vests, coats, collars, detachable collars, belts; dresses, dress shields, fishing vests, fur coats, fur jackets, jumpsuits, hoodies, hoods, jackets, jerseys, sports jerseys, jumper dresses, kimonos, layettes, leotards, outer jackets, winter jackets, outdoor clothing, overcoats, topcoats, petticoats, waistcoats, parkas, cloak, cape, ponchos, suits, sweaters, pullovers, uniforms, overalls, smocks; Pants, namely, shorts, trunks, beach trunks, breeches, hosiery, leggings, tights, panties, pants, trousers, stockings, gaiters, lounge pants; Headgear, namely, hats, bucket hats, caps, baseball caps, bandanas, headbands, shower caps, top hats, cap peaks, turbans, visors, berets; beanies, skull caps; Dresses, dressing gowns, uniforms, karate uniforms, kimonos, aprons, gabardines, capes, hairdressing capes; Baby clothing, namely, bibs, baby jumpsuits; Scarves, fur scarves, fur stoles, veils, neckties, bowties, boas, mufflers, ponchos, pocket squares, shawls; Underwear, namely, boxer shorts; bras, brassieres, teddies, knickers, panties, bodices; pajamas, bodysuits, leotards, underpants, underclothing; Gloves, fingerless gloves, mittens, ski gloves, cuffs, wristbands, socks, sock suspenders, garters, stockings, stocking suspenders, sock suspenders, suspenders, girdles, trouser straps, gaiter straps; Swimsuits, bathing suits, beach clothes, bath robes, bathing caps, overalls, smocks, shower caps, sleep masks, Skirts, skorts, sashes, wet suits for water sports; Clothing, namely, clothing of leather, clothing made of man-made leather, clothing made of imitations of leather, waterproof clothing, cyclists' clothing, embroidered clothing, motorists' clothing, money belts, muffs, ear muffs, footmuffs, ready-made clothing, ready-made linings, clothing for gymnastics, hoods, knitwear, layettes, leg warmers, uniforms, paper clothing, paper hat, pockets, togas; Heels, soles, inner soles, non-slipping devices for footwear, welts for footwear, studs for football boots; Cuffs, wristbands, sleep masks”.

39. Specifically, Applicant’s Amendment to Allege Use declared that the Disputed Mark “was first used by the applicant, or the applicant's related company, licensee, or predecessor in interest at least as early as 11/01/1991, and first used in commerce at least as early as 11/01/1991, and is now in use in such commerce” in connection with each of the goods listed in Applicant’s Amendment to Allege Use.

40. Upon information and belief, Applicant was not organized until at least 1997.

41. Upon information and belief, based upon documents produced by Applicant in the Civil Action, sworn testimony of Applicant in the Civil Action, and given the sheer scope of the goods identified and the number of disparate goods set forth in the identification, the Disputed Mark was not in use in interstate commerce on or in connection with each of the goods listed in Applicant's Amendment to Allege Use on July 2, 2019 when the Amendment to Allege Use was filed.

42. Upon information and belief, Applicant knew that the Disputed Mark was not in use in interstate commerce in connection with each of the goods identified in the Amendment to Allege Use on July 2, 2019 when the Amendment to Allege Use was filed.

43. On August 18, 2020, during a deposition pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) in the Civil Action, Applicant provided sworn testimony that the Disputed Mark was not in use by its purported predecessor in connection with "Shirts, T-shirts, Tank tops, Jumpsuits, Sweat-shirts, Pants, Lounge pants, Socks, Shorts, Sweat shorts, Hoodies, Jackets, Beanies, Hats, Baseball caps, Bucket hats, Bow ties; Belts, Belts made of leather, Scarves, Slippers" in 1991. A true and correct copy of the relevant excerpt from Applicant's deposition pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

44. Upon information and belief and based upon Applicant's sworn testimony in the Civil Action and documents produced by Applicant in the Civil Action, the Disputed Mark was not in use in interstate commerce on or in connection with each of the goods listed in Applicant's Amendment to Allege Use in 1991, including the alleged date of first use of November 1, 1991.

45. Upon information and belief and based upon Applicant's sworn testimony in the Civil Action, at the time the Amendment to Allege Use was filed, Applicant knew that the Disputed Mark was not used in interstate commerce in connection with each of the goods identified in the Amendment to Allege Use since the November 1, 1991 first use date alleged in the Amendment to Allege Use.

46. On August 1, 2019, the identification of goods in the Application was amended via examiner's amendment to read as follows: "Shirts, T-shirts, Tank tops, Jumpsuits, Sweatshirts, Pants, Lounge pants, Socks, Shorts, Sweat shorts, Hoodies, Jackets, Beanies, Hats, Baseball caps, Bucket hats, Bow ties; Belts, Belts made of leather, Scarves, Slippers, in class 25.”

47. Upon information and belief and based upon Applicant’s sworn testimony in the Civil Action and documents produced by Applicant in the Civil Action, in 1991, the Disputed Mark was not in use in interstate commerce on or in connection with each of Applicant’s Goods covered by the Application, including on the alleged date of first use of November 1, 1991.

48. Upon information and belief and based upon Applicant’s sworn testimony in the Civil Action and documents produced by Applicant in the Civil Action, the Disputed Mark is not presently used in interstate commerce in connection with each of Applicant’s Goods covered by the Application.

49. On March 27, 2020, following the examining attorney’s issuance of refusals to register the Disputed Mark because it is merely ornamental, Applicant filed a substitute specimen described as a “T-shirt with collar tag bearing the mark and hang tag bearing the mark.”

50. Applicant’s owner and principal, Krist Novoselic, executed a sworn declaration attesting that, inter alia, the substitute specimen was in use in interstate commerce prior to the filing of the Amendment to Allege Use on July 2, 2019 or expiration of the filing deadline for filing a Statement of Use.

51. Upon information and belief and based upon documents produced by Applicant in the Civil Action, the collar tag and hang tag bearing the Disputed Mark submitted to the USPTO as a substitute specimen on March 27, 2020 were not used in interstate commerce in connection with all of Applicant’s Goods covered by the Application prior to the July 2, 2019 filing date of the Amendment to Allege Use.

52. Upon information and belief based upon documents produced by Applicant in the Civil Action, the substitute specimen submitted to the USPTO on March 27, 2020 is not presently used in interstate commerce in connection with all of Applicant's Goods covered by the Application.

53. Upon information and belief, Applicant made the foregoing false statements as to the use of the Disputed Mark in interstate commerce and the first use date of the Disputed Mark knowingly and with the intent of deceiving the USPTO, and for the purpose of inducing the USPTO to issue a registration to which Applicant is not entitled.

54. Upon information and belief, Applicant made false statements as to the use of the specimen knowingly and with the intent of deceiving the USPTO, and for the purpose of inducing the USPTO to issue a registration to which Applicant is not entitled.

55. Upon information and belief, the foregoing false statements were material to the USPTO's decision to withdraw the ornamental refusal and approve the Disputed Mark for publication.

56. Upon information and belief, the USPTO was deceived by Applicant's false statements and misrepresentations of material fact. Had the USPTO known the true facts, it would not have passed the Disputed Mark to publication.

57. For the foregoing reasons, Opposer respectfully requests that the Application to register the Disputed Mark be refused.

WHEREFORE, Opposer believes that it will be damaged by registration of the Application and respectfully requests that this Opposition be sustained and that the Application for the registration of the mark be refused.

Fabric not what I expected but not bad! I ordered this as an oversized shirt/dress to wear with tights in the winter. I'm 5'6" and it's great but just a bit
short if I reach my arms up.
Probably should've gone with one size higher.

Shirt appears to be nice. I'll know better once I have washed it and see if there is any shrinkage.

My son loved all the shirts

★★★★★ January 4, 2020
The shirt was a Christmas Eve present for my son in law. I paid for it to be shipped next day. We found it on the back porch the 27th of December. There was no email or note saying it was left there. Although late, he loves the shirt.

My husband loves it. True to size.I ordered large.

★★★★☆ December 19, 2019
The shirt it's self is pretty good, the fabric is nice, the fit is a little off, not sure if I ordered the size or maybe the size is different for different products like in the clothing stores. Overall the product is fine.
